Burial of Eugene M. Tinkham at Hanever-Second Night of Parish Fair-

The funeral of Eugene M. Tinkham was held Monday evening at 7 o'clock in Springfield, Rev. William M. Crawford, pastor of Grace Methodist church, officiating. The E. K. Wilcox post, G. A. R., was represented by a large delegation and conducted the ritual. There were also large delegations from the Masons and Odd Fellows, the Woman's Relief corps and the United Workmen.

The body was brought to Baltic Tuesday morning on the 7.10 train, where it was taken in charge by Undertaker G. G. Grant. Burial was in the family lot in Hanover cometery, where Rev. C. H. Peck read a committal service. Members of the family were bearers.

Second Night of Fair.

Tuesday was the second night of the Sacred Heart parish fair and it will be continued this week on Thursday and Saturday nights. There was a good attendance at Parish hall, dancing being the main attraction. White's orchestra furnished music, and Professor Bennett prompted. A comic song in French by John B. Boucher was a hit.

Tuesday morning the new board of selectmen—A. W. Lillibridge, F. E. Beckwith and W. B. Wilcox, appeared before Town Clerk Holbrook, who as a justice of the peace swore them into office. Ex-Selectman Lathrop turned over at keys of the office and the new board at once took possession. The new board has made its appointments as fellows: Town counsel, Joseph T. Fannisp; clerks, John J. Corkers and Miss Mass Contract.

FOREMAN J. W. MOORE GIVEN GOLD WATCH

NOVEMBER MASS MEETING Presented by Employes of B. & A Rev. W. S. MacIntire Expected as the Silk Mill-Going to Paterson. Speaker-Parlor Meetings to Be Re-

Tuesday afternoon at the closing hour of the Brainerd & Armstrong Costik mill at the foot of Golden street, Jacob W. Moore of 122 Prospect street, foreman of the weaving department since the opening of the mill in March, 1905, was presented a handsome and valuable gold watch by the employes of the whole mill. The presentation was appropriately made by Miss Alice O'Donneil, as one of the oldest employes. Mr. Moore was greatly pleased and voiced his thanks in a brief speech. He referred to the confidence they had always had in him, and expressed his regret at leaving them.

Mr. Moore leaves tonight for Paterson, N. J., where he has accepted an attractive position. He leaves here with the best wishes of those who know him. Tuesday afternoon at the closing The W. C. T. U. had a large at-tendance Monday afternoon in its rooms for the October meeting, which

FREE TEXT BOOKS

AT TOWN MEETING. Matter Will Have a Thorough Discussion-Cost Estimated at About $10,-

An important part of the town meeting next Tuesday evening will be the discussion relative to the free text books, which matter has been incorporated in the warning upon a petition from Occum. In speaking of the matter in Tuesday an ifficial stated that it would probably cost the town at the start $8,000 to $10,000 to furnish free text books the first year, and that a large sum would be required each year for changed books or replacing those which had become worn out. As a health measure, he did not think it a good idea for children to be using books which others had used. This discussion also led to the statement that it was not believed that half the voters on Monday understool what they were voting for on the consolidation of school districts. As the consolidation was defeated, there will porated in the warning upon a pet superintendents concerning the talk which it is desired to give before the school children. These were Miss Cross for the Central district, Mrs. T. A. Ferkins for Greeneville, Mrs. S. Howard Mead for the West Side, Mrs. F. H. Bushnell for the Bridge district. Mrs. G. O. Stead and Mrs. Dodge for the two schools at Norwich Town. consolidation was defeated, there will be no change, but had the yes vote won all the districts in the city as well. as the town would have been consoll-dated under one head. There was a very small vote on the question and it was lost by only 60 votes.
